

The Ferrari F40 is an iconic supercar produced by Ferrari from 1987 to 1992 to celebrate the company's 40th anniversary. It was the last car personally approved by Enzo Ferrari. With a lightweight body, a 2.9L twin-turbocharged V8 engine, and no traction control, it was designed for pure performance. The F40 was one of the fastest cars of its time, with a top speed of 201 mph.
